Carry it on... Live! DVD
 filmed at the 2013 festival.
 (Available after August 15, 2014)

A Saturday night dance performance at the Wheatland Music Festival generates excitement like nothing else can. The organization's continuing commitment to traditional dance over the years is one of the things that make it unique. It was fitting then that the centerpiece of the Festival's 40th Anniversary in 2013, was a Saturday night celebration of dance that included the finest professional dancers and dance musicians in the country, as well as seventy performers from the greater Wheatland community. Commissioned by the WMO to create this performance, choreographer Sharon Leahy directed this team of dedicated artists and brought forth Carry it on... Live!
