Traditional

Finally, spring emerges! It seems everyone has seen enough of winter. At Wheatland, spring means all the plans for the annual Traditional Arts Weekend are being finalized. TAW is a great way to start the summer outdoors with family and friends. You can still order your ticket. Information is included in this Quarternotes and is also available on the web. The Wheatland Music Organization will no longer be mailing 10,000 Quarternotes newsletters. It has been decided to post the digital version on the website so people can download and print it in its entirety or just print what they need. If you still prefer the paper version, you may request your copy. Call or email the office and let them know you want yours mailed. The times, they are a changing! All of the current information is on the website and is constantly updated. We have promoted this for some time now but we know there are many people who may have forgot to send their card. If you know of someone who is looking for their Quarternotes, please pass the word.

I recently attended a Wheatscouts session with my grandson, husband and daughter. What an absolutely delightful morning! We sang interactive songs with my pals The Blue Water Ramblers. We made natural lip balm and decorated our containers. We danced, laughed, visited, ate healthy snacks and went sled riding on a beautiful Saturday afternoon! If you have never been to Wheatscouts, do yourself a favor and take your children or grandchildren, spend time doing fun, wholesome activities. Jennifer Fields runs an excellent program for children of all ages, even us big children! This program is FREE and FUN!!!! See the web for more info.

And believe it or not, festival planning is well on its way. Volunteer training dates are set. We hope to see new and returning volunteers sharing and learning how to make this a safe festival for everyone. WMO needs each one of its great volunteers. The main stage line-up is set, plans to build the new 'acoustic performance venue' are underway, committee meetings are taking place, and a new campaign to keep our property clean during the festival is being introduced. Seems a shame we have to actually put work into a 'clean-up' after your-self campaign. Didn't people used to do that without being told?

Anyway, enjoy the sunshine and warm breath of air!

Arts Weekend 2014

Performances by:

Billy Strings and Don Julin

Billy Strings and Don Julin play Traditional American String Band music with energy levels usually associated with extreme sports. Billy Strings is a 21 year old, tattoo-covered guitar picker and singer about whom we will surely be hearing for years to come. For over 30 years, Don Julin has built a reputation as an exceptionally eclectic and versatile mandolin player. These boys will take you back to the high lonesome sound of yesterday's bluegrass. No super-slick nash-pop here. This is your granddaddy's bluegrass delivered with the pedal to the metal intensity of a moonshine runner.

Heartland Klezmerim

Heartland Klezmerim has been performing Klezmer music throughout the mid-west since 2006. Band members are David Klein (trumpet, cornet, flugelhorn), Ben Godoshian (percussion), Chris Hamilton (bass), (multi-instrumentalist) Drew Howard, Susanne Garber (violin), and "super size" Will Metz (tenor sax). The music of the Heartland Klezmerim is a combination of foot-tapping old and new Klezmer tunes, yiddish folk melodies, and jazz interpretations of music from the yiddish theater. This is a recipe for enjoyable listening and dancing. Heartland Klezmerim observes the traditions in Klezmer music as well as adding a few new sounds.

Lads of the North

Lads of the North is a tight musical trio hailing from Bloomington, IN., an epicenter of traditional music in the United States. The band is anchored by Grey Larsen on piano. Flanking Grey is Eric Schedler on accordion. The third member of the trio is Sam Bartlett, who plays an intricate and propulsive mandolin and tenor banjo that electrifies musical arrangements. The Lads play music that is traditional but still pulsing, stuff that insists you grab a partner and dance. The Lads also love nothing more than to entertain a sitting audience with medleys of tunes from Celtic lands, seductive compositions, musical humor, and outrageous stunts. This is vaudeville and dance hall rolled into one.

Keep Wheatland Clean & Green

You talked. We listened.

Wheatland is working hard to revamp and expand our recycling and waste management programs. "Keep Wheatland Clean & Green" is a combined effort between our Recycling and Trash Consciousness coordinators, committee members, and festival-goers.

Our goal is to better serve and respect the land that has given us so much, and to help you feel great about taking care of the Wheatland you know and love!

Help Us Help You!

We would love to hear your responses to the following questions in order to help us create recycling and waste management programs that will best benefit you, our festival-goers.

- How can we make recycling easier at the festival?
- How can we make trash disposal easier at the festival?
- Where would you like to see more trash cans?
- Where would you like to see recycling containers?
