Joan Heuvelhorst

Joan Heuvelhorst, Still Water Studio in Rockford, MI, has been making art since 1995. Her work has been displayed at various shops and galleries in the West Michigan area. While well known for Glass Bead Making, she has branched out to the use of copper; creating beautiful copper jewelry. Because class size is so limited to making copper jewelry, there will also be an area adjacent to Joan where participants can come and spend a short time and experience basic copper work. Copper Jewelry and Copper Sampler workshops will be Saturday 9am-noon and 1:30-4:30pm.

Joy Castonguay

Joy Castonguay lives with her husband, Jim, and their family in Freeport, MI. She has been making soaps since 1990, and has added lotions and other skin care products over the years. Now she includes making your own cleaning products. She is constantly testing and creating new recipes and revising current formulas as she learns new trends in the area of hand-made products. Joy will be teaching Naturally Clean House Sunday, 9am-noon and Milk Soap Making Sunday 1:30-4:30pm. Both of these workshops have a supply list so if you plan on attending one please check the list out.

Laurie Jo Raymond

Laurie Jo Raymond has been working with metals, wire and beading for some 20 years. Laurie Jo enjoys creating eclectic jewelry and art pieces incorporating different materials such as beads, wood, metals and wire. She creates functional and wearable artwork and loves to use recycled materials also. Those attending her classes will be learning to do coils, clasps, earrings and the basic techniques of jewelry making and design. Her classes are limited to 25 students so sign up ahead of time or get in line early!

Arts Weekend 2015

PERFORMANCES BY:

Good Foot Dance Company accompanied by Maivish

Good Foot Dance Company explores the complex cultural twinings of the root-system of American traditional dance, from Appalachian flatfooting, to tap, to contemporary urban dance. By mixing and remixing vernacular dance and music and bringing a critical and historical inquiry to the shared history of American dance cultures, they put on an energetic performance, while raising questions about connectivity, continuity and social responsibility. Good Foot Dance Company is Matthew Olwell, Becky Hill and Emily Oleson. They will be teaching Clogging I, Clogging II, Body Rhythms, Flatfooting, Tap and Jazz Era Party Dances.

Maivish explores the landscape of time-honored melodies and songs and comes home along new pathways, making music with vibrant energy and delight. Gathering traditions from the British Isles, Ireland and America with a mix of original compositions, their performance is infused with lush vocal harmonies, inspired interplay and captivating spirit. At its core, the group is a collaboration between American fiddler Jaige Trudel and British born guitarish Adam Broome who have been performing together as a duo for over a decade. Joining them is Matthew Olwell on flutes, bodhran and percussive dance. Maivish will provide the music for Good Foot's dance workshops. Together Good Foot Dance Company and Maivish will present a performance/concert Saturday at 7:00 PM on the Main Stage.

New Riverside Ramblers

New Riverside Ramblers, from Minneapolis, MN, bring high-energy Cajun dance music from the prairies and bayous of Louisiana to Traditional Arts Weekend. This French music blends influences from the many cultures and communities of south Louisiana to produce compelling two-steps, waltzes and blues. Band members are Eric Mohring (fiddle & vocals), Paul Loughridge (percussion and triangle), Karen Kleinspehn (rhythm guitar), Doug Lohman (bass), John Terr (accordion) and AJ Scrubas (fiddle). They will be providing workshops in Cajun Fiddle, Sound 101, Irish Fiddle, Cajun Rhythm Guitar and will provide music for two Cajun Dance Instruction workshops let by Mark Stoltz, Lake Ann, MI. New Riverside Ramblers will be playing for Cajun Jam at 4:30 PM on Saturday and a Cajun Dance Sunday at 10:15 in the Dance Pavilion.

Martha Burns

With an old-time voice that echoes the mountains, Martha Burns sings southern ballads, cowboy songs, comic ditties, turn-of-the-century heart-throbbers and whatever else strikes her fancy. She's been playing and singing American folk music since the early 1960s growing up in New York's Greenwich Village. A gifted solo performer, she has also appeared in oldduets and with several top-notch string bands. Martha's sensitivity to the traditions from which she sings lends a special richness to all her performances. She will be leading three workshops; Old Time Song Types, Singing Carter Family Songs and Carter Style Guitar. Friday evening she will present a concert at 8:00 PM on the Main Stage.

Hellos & Goodbyes

Have you made any additions to your Wheatland family since the 2014 festival? For “Hellos,” please tell us their name, when he or she was born (and/or when he or she joined the family), and his or her parents’/ guardians’ names.

If you have had to say goodbye to a special Wheatie since the last festival, consider letting the many people who read the festival program book every year know of their passing. For “Goodbyes,” we would like to know the person’s name, when he or she passed away, how many festivals he or she attended, and what the person liked best about Wheatland.

If you have a black and white or high contrast color photo of your loved one you would like to share, we might be able to include it in the program book. Send info for “Hellos and Goodbyes” to WMO, PO Box 22, Remus, MI 49340 or email us at wmo.office@wheatlandmusic.org. The deadline for all entries is July 15, 2015.
